With reference to PHUKET AIRLINES (ICAO Code: VAP) from Thailand which appears in the EC list of banned air carriers displayed above, please note the following:

Information received from the Civil Aviation Department of Thailand, Phuket Airlines is currently in the process of splitting up the company into two operating airlines. Once the two new companies have received the operating licence from the Ministry of Transport, Phuket Airlines will terminate its business completely.

- one of the new companies will be using B747-200/300 to operate as a charter airline serving the Thailand-Saudi Arabia route;

- the second airline will be using B737-200 to operate domestically and to nearby, neighbouring countries.

This information submitted by the Thai authorities, follows applications submitted by two companies – Suvarnabhumi Airlines and Holiday Airlines – to the said authorities.
